We welcome our family to our community, which serve children from childhood at the age of 12. The Montessori method of education provides a knowledge rich environment through a child-led model. Children learn happiness by carefully working with the material on hand, sequankad. Your child's motivation search naturally goes towards a solid foundation and top-class experts. Full language waser is the best way to offer your child a well read bilingual benefit. Research shows that two children demonstrate better sanctothanatic flexibility, regularly in more ways than one muscle resulting from a shinch to their language. On our campus, we offer both full Spanish and mendasta opportunities. We believe that an important part of our role is to work as a support system for your family. We try to be here when you need us, hours of late pickup and the least With closure. And because the Montessori approach works best when one appears in Like minds, we conduct regular campus events and get-togethers. Learn more We love our Godpost School and especially The Incredible Nido Guide of The Lokas. They promote our son's cognitive, physical and emotional development every day, and we are thankful for him as a part of our butts village. We are happy that we can start the route to Montessori at the early age, and we love seeing it in our Nido Room. My children have developed into capable and pained people. School feels like a community, a family... Their leaders know their individual tastes and trends and its needs. I love that the program emphasizes practical life (things like learning to get dressed by yourself), as well as 'grace and thanks' lessons it comes to sharing. It's a world view, which I love. The Guadpost Montessori School in Aara is a friendly and upright environment. Teachers and management are hardworking and dedicated. I like three hour work tour at the children's house, and flexible 'extended day' class schedule. For Aara, this means that a lot of Montessori in the same day, every day! Our Godpost school is full of happy kids, and staff and teachers are friendly and flexible. Loves action! We are given attention to every person's child, and how The Montessori approach works to make them more independent. I love how kind and positive tristan and kalasat have groups. I also appreciate the beautiful classroom and entertainment after the school program. Don't want to leave my kids at the end of the day! I love how hot teachers and management are and they talk about the development of their children. Learning is pleasant and engaging. My kids actually love school and are learning too much! We love teachers in Godpost! The administrators are organized and friendly, and the school provides pictures of Oliveria working in the classroom for daily tracking emails and maximums. In The Olyuyra program, we like beautiful Montessori content and the generally Montessori approach-we love to learn and grow. I love the staff. They treat everyone as family, and they love my daughter like they were their own. He really loves all the leaders here. Godpost is family friendly... Everyone is very warm and welcome, and I love to know that my daughter is in such a upbringing environment. I love how to learn my daughter on hand. He is learning amazing life skills such as a young age! Godpost Montessori feels like a family. The environment is safe and full of love and care, which makes it fun and easy to learn. I love the approach to freedom in learning. That's pretty sure of yourself. Godpost provides an authentic Montessori curriculum and materials. I love that his teachers are reward trained, which is very important... The management team is helpful and friendly. We love that Montessori approach Freedom is promotion and provides an opportunity to give it Freely and choose his own work. I love teachers and community in Godpost. How to love everyone. Teachers and administrators are very caring-they want the best experience for our family. How much I like that they encourage children to learn and they apply Montessori to help the whole child develop their best potential. I love amazing staff, who help to take care of children as a community. Children's teachers treat each child as an individual and pay close attention to their needs and preparation for new materials and work. For Jacob, Nido's room provides freedom, self-confidence, and respect for the child's own body and space. Everyone in Godpost has to help and promote our son's development. This is a wonderful family that is part of... We can talk to them about anything and feel that our opinion is worth. They really care about our son's development and education. The development of Aydin is absolutely amazing... The balance between finding out the skills of life and just being a little child boy is perfect. Learnt skills beyond godpost from your colleagues. He's the best little helper of mom and dad! Teachers and management of Godpost work really hard to make an environment that warms up all the children and includes. The Godpost community is amazing. The families we have fulfilled are incredible and welcome our family. Godpost Montessori promotes autonomy and freedom, while still fulfilling the needs of the individual child. Godpost has worked with our family to help meet and grow the needs of his daughter. The Godpost staff see every individual child as an individual and really try to bring in the true potential of Maxwell-they promote freedom, and we have only developed Maxwell until he was 3. The administration and teachers of Godpost are the type, care and understanding they always take time to hear parents and ensure that all our needs about our child are fulfilled. We also love low class sizes, amazing tools and opportunities in the classroom, and how they keeping us informed-we love constant communication. We all love people, and the culture they are building, on the Godpost. Teachers are loving and empathetic... They are here when you need any suggestions! Management is quick and space. They don't sell anything- they think about your situation and recommend what's good for you. The programs encourage our children to develop new skills every day, develop internal discipline, respect, lead others, and challenge themselves. Care.com $25 registration fee for the members.
